THE GIFT OF THE REIGN OF GOD

The stone that builders rejected has become the cornerstone.

Matthew's Gospel today expands on Isaiah's ballad considerably. A comparison with the same story in Mark's Gospel clearly shows us that here the author is busy teaching this community of Jewish Christians: "This is a story about Israel a long time ago; this is also a story about Jesus and the skeptical leaders."

Jesus as much as told these Jewish leaders that they were the tenants who first stoned their own prophets. And he told the leaders they were the tenants who would soon even dispose of him ...Jesus ...and, in doing so, would forfeit their privileged place of presenting to the world the promised Messiah.

"And this," says Matthew's Gospel, "is a story about you, the inheritors of what was first offered to Israel." The reign of God was first opened to Israel and is now given to the whole world, but it must be received as a gift. The first Christians are the new tenants in the vineyard. The deeper reality of the reign or kingdom of God is that it is available to everyone on the face of the earth ...Israel included.

EL REGALO DEL REINO DE DIOS

El Evangelio de hoy según san Mateo amplía considerablemente la balada de Isaías. Una comparación con el mismo relato en el Evangelio según san Marcos muestra que aquí el autor se ocupa de enseñar a su comunidad de judío-cristianos: "Este es un relato sobre el Israel de antaño; y es también un relato sobre Jesús y los dudosos líderes".

Jesús llegó a decir a estos líderes judíos que ellos eran los viñadores que primero apedrearon a sus propios profetas. Y le dijo a los líderes que ellos eran los viñadores que pronto se desharían de él, Jesús, y que, al hacerlo, renunciarían a su papel privilegiado de presentar al Mesías prometido al mundo.

"Y éste", dice el Evangelio según san Mateo, "es un relato sobre ustedes, los herederos de lo que fue primeramente ofrecido a Israel". El Reino de Dios fue abierto primero para Israel y ahora es ofrecido a todo el mundo, pero debe ser recibido como un regalo. Los primeros cristianos son los nuevos viñadores. La más profunda realidad del Reino de Dios es que está a disposición de toda persona sobre la faz de la tierra, incluso a Israel. © Copyright, J. S. Paluch Co.

Men's CRHP Retreat

Want to improve your relationship with Jesus Christ?

We are inviting all men of Christ the King parish (19 and older) for a weekend of renewal at the Christ Renews His Parish (CRHP) retreat. We will explore our personal relationships with Jesus Christ, enjoy one another's fellowship, and pray for grace. With a renewed spirit, we hope to impact our families and our Christ the King Community in a meaningful way. Mark you calendar for Saturday October 29th and Sunday October 30th. Registration deadline is October 8th. But don't delay as we have a limit of 35 spaces and you will have to wait until next year if you miss out.

For more information and registration, please contact Deacon Jacob Favela at the parish office; (702) 841-1904 or email Bill Best at: wbest@accesstoledo.com or Mike Timmerman at: mikeosut@yahoo.com

The Week Ahead

It's October and Christ the King Catholic Community is busier than ever! Here's a rundown of some of the events that are happening:

Little Rock Scripture Study This is a weekly Bible Study beginning this week: Thursday, October 6 at 7:00 p.m. OR Friday, October 7 at 9:00 a.m. You can attend either session as they are identical. Both are held in the Community Center and last for two hours. There are 8 classes — every Thursday night and Friday morning, except for the two November holidays: November 10/11 for Veteran's Day and November 24/25 for Thanksgiving. If you haven't pre-registered, you may just show up. The Biblical book for study this season is the ever-popular, curious, interesting and intriguing "BOOK OF REVELATION!"

Annual Pumpkin Patch and Beer Fest This has already developed into one of the most fun activities of the year. The day-time hours for PUMPKIN PATCH & GARAGE SALE are from 7:00 a.m. — 4:00 p.m. and the Bier Garten (for adults) opens at 5:00 p.m. until ??? This will be a wonderful day for the whole family!

Men's "Christ Renews His Parish" I had the wrong start-date in last week's bulletin: it actually starts on Saturday, October 29 (I had the 28th) and ends on Sunday, October 30. Remember, it is first come/first serve. There are only 30 slots . . .so sign up now. This is an amazing experience for the men of Christ the King. Just as the 28 women who made the first CRHP had a profound experience, I know that this will be the same for the men.

Auction and Raffle This is our biggest fund-raising event of the year! and lots of fun! The date is Friday, November 4, beginning at 7:00 p.m. in the Gym. We are still making all the final plans; so be sure to read all the details in the up-coming bulletins. I think that we are going to have two vehicles this year: a car and a truck! The raffle tickets will be in next weekend's bulletin. Who couldn't use a little extra cash this year? If you can sell more tickets than what is in the bulletin, please contact the Office and take out some more and sell them to your family, friends, in the neighborhood and at work!

I know that this is a busy time of year. Please support all of these activities at Christ the King. All of them are important to the different aspects of parish life: spiritual, social and financial. Please mark your calendars NOW and I hope to see all of you there.

I'm off to Washington, D.C. to attend my 40th Class Reunion: my seminary ordination class of 1971 at The Catholic University of America in our nation's capitol.

FAMILY PROMISE . . . a GREAT SUCCESS!

Thank you to all of those who worked last week to help make our families feel comfortable. Everyone went out of their way to cook delicious meals and see to the endless details. The parents seemed relaxed, and the children felt right at home.

STEW NIGHT ~ Wed., October 5th at 4:00 pm

We will be making our monthly meal in the Community Center for the Catholic Worker soup line from 4:00 – 5:30 p.m. this week. We will be making: hot dogs, watermelon, corn on the cob and macaroni salad. Join us to help slice watermelon and shuck corn.

THANKS TO ALL OUR BLOOD DONORS LAST WEEKEND United Blood Services love us! Who can blame them?

Thank you to the Knights of Columbus for all their hard work last weekend making the French toast breakfast to raise funds for Manna Cupboard. They raised $323.09. We appreciate your hard work and your delicious French toast!

LITURGY CORNER

THE NEW ROMAN MISSAL

During the past month great attention has been given to introducing everyone to the fact of the "change" coming to our celebration of the liturgy in English, namely the revised translations of the prayers and responses in the Roman Missal.

By way of explanation let us "back track" a bit to clarify for everyone what the Roman Missal really is. Simply put, the Roman Missal is the book used by the Presider (Priest) at mass that contains all the prayers, chants and the regulations for eucharistic celebrations.

For centuries the Roman Missal contained not only the mass prayers, chants and regulations, but the scripture readings as well. One can only imagine just how thick the book must have been.

The first Roman Missal appeared around 1474 but it wasn't until 1570 that it came into obligatory use in the Latin church for the celebration of the mass. Throughout history several editions were published to accommodate revised texts, the addition of newly canonized saints along the way and updated rubrics for the celebration of the liturgy itself.

Vatican II brought about a more practical division of the Roman Missal into two books that we have currently: the "Sacramentary" which is the Roman Missal portion with the prayers, chants and regulations and the "Lectionary" which contains the scripture readings. These scripture readings are divided into three cycles on a rotating basis.

Will this new revision of the Roman Missal be the "last" and "final" translation? The answer simply is a resounding "NO." Just as in the past, the future will call for further revisions and changes as the understanding of the original Latin texts evolves. There will always be more saints to add to our calendar and the rubrics too will change accordingly.

If you wish to donate money for flowers in memory or in celebration of loved ones. DONATIONS MUST BE FOR WEEKEND LITURGIES.

Christian Formation

Becoming Catholic?

If you think you would like to become Catholic, or if you would just like to learn about Catholicism, we offer weekly opportunities to learn about the Catholic faith. These informal gatherings for coffee and conversation are held 7:00 pm each Monday (except major holidays) in Room 5 of the Activity Center. If, due to your schedule, you can't join us at our regular Monday night sessions, please call the parish office at 871-1904 and leave your name and phone number. We will do our best to accommodate you. Please contact Beth Thompson at 871-1904 ext. 230 if you have any questions.

Seeking Baptism for your Child?

Those NOT registered in the parish MUST attend the monthly Newcomers Meeting, held the 1st Tuesday of every month at 7:30 pm in the Activity Center. We require that you worship with us for at least six weeks before you call to register for the Alpha/Baptism sessions. Please call Robyn at 871-1904 ext. 232, M-F 8:00 am to 4:00 pm to register for the sessions.

No Baptisms may be scheduled until sessions and requirements are completed.

Pre-registration is required for Alpha/Baptism sessions.

CTK Pumpkin Patch 2011 STUFFED ANIMALS NEEDED!

Don't know what to do with your overload of stuffed animals and toys? Please consider donating your gently used/new stuffed animals as they will be used as prizes for our games this year.

The children really enjoyed them last year, so we are hoping for even more donations for 2011!

There will be a box in the Gathering Space on weekends for your donations or dropped them off in the Religious Ed Office during the week.

Thank you so much for your support for a fun-filled family event here at CTK!!
