Today's Readings

First Reading — Amos said, “The LORD took me from following the flock, and said to me, Go, prophesy to my people” (Amos 7:12-15).

Psalm — Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation (Psalm 85).

Second Reading — The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing (Ephesians 1:3-14 [3-10]).

Gospel — Jesus summoned the Twelve and began to send them out two by two (Mark 6:7-13).

MASS TIMES

SATURDAY:
4:00 pm

SUNDAY:
7:30, 9:30 (signed for hearing impaired),
11:30am, 5:00 pm &
7:00 pm (Misa en Español)

WEEKDAYS:
Mon - Sat ~ 8:00 am

HOLY DAYS:
8:00 am & 7:00 pm

GOD CHOSE US

Who chose first, God or you? That is the question explored in today's three readings. The second reading, from Paul's Letter to the Ephesians, reads almost like a hymn. It praises God for choosing us, for calling us to serve, and for blessing us in our service. Paul makes it clear how honored we are and how special is the call to live as children of God. This is through no doing of our own.

The first reading and the Gospel use prose rather than poetry to describe the same truth: God did the choosing, not us. When the prophet Amos was berated for being a prophet, he retorted that the whole thing wasn't his idea in the first place. Neither did the twelve apostles in today's Gospel ask for their calling. Jesus sent them forth, two by two, to do the work of his kingdom.

HE SENT THEM OUT
TWO BY TWO

DIOS NOS ELIGIÓ

¿Quién eligió primero, Dios o tú? Esa es la pregunta que exploramos en las tres lecturas de hoy. La segunda lectura, la carta de Pablo a los Efesios, se lee casi como un himno. Es una alabanza a Dios por habernos escogido, habernos llamado a servir, y por bendecirnos en nuestro servicio. Pablo deja en claro el gran honor que hemos recibido y lo especial que es la llamada a vivir como hijos de Dios. Esto no es por nuestros méritos.

La primera lectura y el Evangelio usan prosa en vez de poesía para describir la misma verdad: Dios nos escogió, no nosotros. Cuando el profeta Amós fue criticado por ser un profeta, respondió que, en primer lugar, el asunto no era su idea. Tampoco los doce apóstoles en el Evangelio de hoy pidieron su llamado. Jesús los envió de dos en dos, para hacer el trabajo de su Reino.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Does the scene of the disciples being sent out two by two bring to mind any other scripture? After the flood, Noah opens the door of the ark and sends his passengers out to renew the face of the earth. Certainly, Jesus has the same purpose. The purpose is fulfilled in your communion in the Body of Christ today, and in your being sent from the Eucharist into the world. The sending is so important that our word "Mass" derives from it. In Latin, the last words of worship are Ite, missa est, which means "Go, you are sent." From that, people began to call Catholic worship the missa, or in English, the "Mass." Our English words dismissal, missal, emissary, and mission are all related. We are not sent into the workaday world alone, but in relationship to one another.

Some people have acquired the unhappy habit of leaving worship as soon as they receive Communion and therefore miss the prayer, the dismissal, and the solemn blessing that are essential parts of the Mass. The dismissal is a seal on our Communion and reveals its purpose. Thanks be to God!

My dear friends,

I am so grateful to all of you for making me feel so much at home here at CTK. You all certainly live up to your motto of "May you always feel at home at CTK." That ideal is certainly a reality from my perspective, as I have been treated like I've always been here.

Many of you have been an inspiration to me in living out the virtue of Love as defined by the Gospel of John. I always use John's Gospel as the example of the "Gospel of Love" as John so identified the "Christ" with His love for the Father, and that of His Son, and in return our love for one another. CTK can be proud of the fact that it resonates this love on so many levels. My hope and desire for our parish is that we keep the momentum of love moving in and out of our parish ministries, especially in the ongoing Religious Education of our precious children, and for the young adults group and outreach ministries which so many of you relentlessly commit and give of yourselves. It makes my heart leap with joy knowing that our community is so involved with the outpouring their gifts and especially that of modeling the Love of Christ to the poorest of the poor and the outcasts of society.

Presently I am still settling in not only the parish, but also my home. Seemingly for me, unpacking boxes and putting things away is an endless task, but unpacking also gives me a sense opening gifts at Christmas.....NOT!!!!!! Nonetheless, I am feeling more and more at home in my new office; now all I need to do is move my bed in, and I'll probably have a sense of totally being at home here (not to mention that I keep my slippers and pajamas in the file cabinet).

I would like to offer my deepest gratitude to Fr. Bill for being an inspiration to me and that of CTK for his lifelong commitment to CTK and that of his vocation to continue the mission of our Lord. Fr. Bill will be greatly missed by all of us, and he will always have a home here at CTK.

Blessings and love to all you.

Fr. Ray

In today's readings we see how we are called to be in line with God's will and allow that all we do should give glory to God. Do we show forth God's glory in our lives and marriage relationship? Allow God to strengthen, renew and rekindle your marriage sacrament so that it can be a sign of God's love and reflect His glory. Attend our next weekend on September 28-30th in the Las Vegas area. Early registration is highly recommended. For more information, call Wayne ♥ Marcia Kessler at 702-566-8753. For information on Spanish-language weekends, call Javier ♥ Maria Lopez at 243-5934 or 206-4270.

PROTECTING GOD'S CHILDREN SEMINAR

If you are working as a volunteer in any program here at Christ the King Catholic Community working with children, you must have taken this three hour seminar. Beth Thompson will teach one here at Christ the King on Thursday, Sept. 13th, from 6:00 – 9:00 p.m., in Room 1 of the Activity Center. Please go to: www.virtus.org to sign up to take this, if you have not yet attended the course.

THE FAMILY PROMISE FAMILIES ARRIVE TODAY - JULY 15TH – JULY 22

Our families will be using some of the Activity Center meeting rooms this week. Some meetings scheduled may have been moved in order to accommodate our guests. Please help make them feel at home while they are staying with us.

BLOOD DRIVE TODAY, Sunday, July 15th from 8:00 am until 1:00 pm.

If you are eligible to donate blood, please drop by the Community Center TODAY!. It takes about an hour.

THANK YOU HOMELESS HELPERS!

Homeless Helpers, a non-profit organization in Las Vegas to help the homeless, stops at our church every Thursday to pick up and distribute the sandwiches we make for the homeless. We have been partnering with them for over five years to maintain feeding stations in the "homeless corridor" near Catholic Charities. We have recently received a donation of $5,000 for transitional housing from Homeless Helpers, furthering our partnership to help those in need.

As the newly selected Chairman of the Pastoral Council, I would like to welcome our new members; Vince Gorski, Rick Houle, Les Lisicki, Mary Milanowski and Heda Taormina. Thank you very much for your loyalty and dedication to our church community.

Additionally, as everyone knows, Fr. Bill Kenny is now the full-time pastor at Holy Spirit Catholic Church and our new priest here at Christ the King is Fr. Ray Rioux. He was introduced at all the masses on the weekend of July 1st. I hope everyone will take the time to get to know Fr. Ray.

Christ the King Catholic Community was established to bring us together as a Catholic Faith Community. The Pastoral Council works together to challenge and support all of our members through liturgy, worship, religious education, services and social events. The Pastoral Council is a group of dedicated, hard-working parishioners with a common desire to continue to keep Christ the King a strong Catholic Community.

As a member of the Pastoral Council for the past two years, I have had the pleasure of working with Fr. Bill and the other members of the council to find ways to bring our community together through the word of God, education and social events. As to the new members, thank you very much for your service, your dedication to Christ the King Community, and welcome to the council. I am confident we will have a great year making Christ the King even more visible as a Catholic Community in Las Vegas, NV. Welcome Fr. Ray

Blessings to all,
Rob Walsh

FAITH VALUES AND ETHICS IN THE WORKPLACE

GUARDIAN ANGEL CATHEDRAL

"Ethics in the Marketplace" is the title of the ministry of Jesuit, Fr. Max Oliva, who makes his home in the Vegas valley. As of January, 2012, Father Oliva is the Presider for the 12:10 P.M. Mass at the Cathedral on the last Wednesday of each month. The focus of his homilies (sermons) is Living One's Faith in the Workplace. For information on Father's work, see his web site:

www.ethicsinthemarketplace.com

Please mark your calendars for July 25. This monthly Mass will resume then in September.

THANK YOU VERY MUCH to all who attended and participated in my retirement party on June 29. Particularly to the organizing committee: Maureen Morley, Gina Pignatello and Robyn Runco.

There are so many others who contributed towards the expenses, preparation, setting up and cleaning after ... I will personally thank each of you. With much gratitude to the San Lorenzo Ruiz members for the scrumptious "lechon" and the food processor, members of the Hispanic Group, especially Laura and Roy Castro for the wonderful Mexican food; to Jeannette Apple, Isabel Mann, Roseanne Tabick and Rita Phillips for the delicious Italian food; to Panera Bread Co (Ft Apache & Trop) for your donation.

Your show of affection with gifts was overwhelming, particularly the scrapbook. Thank you Denise Gallagher.

To all my Filipino friends, you are in my heart and I hope you will visit me in Costa Rica. Finally, I want to thank my sister Rosibel Campos for the Costa Rican tamales. Rosi has been by my side for the last 12 years while we worked so many events. She is not coming with me to Costa Rica and I will miss her inspiration, perseverance and support ... I love you! Maureen Morley I love you, I will miss you and thank you for your tireless help through the years. CTK is very lucky to have you as volunteers, you are both God's gifts in your commitment and dedication to serve the Lord. When I came to work at CTK I hoped to make a difference in someone's life... I can tell you that you have made a difference in my life. I will miss you so much but will always have the memories of our times together.

Whatever volunteer work I do in Costa Rica, it will be in your name because you have inspired me even more to be of service. God bless you all. I will come back and visit.

With all my love,
Maria Carrabis, Retired Director

Note from Bishop Pepe

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

On July 22 the diocese will take up a collection to assist the National Black and Indian Missions as well as Catholic Home Missions.

The National Black and Indian Mission Office assist dioceses in their evangelization efforts among African Americans, Native Americans, Eskimo and Aleut Communities, churches and schools to continue building their Christian communities. Your monetary sacrifices assist with mission schools, religious education programs, purchase of catechetical materials, Bibles and ministry training. In our own diocese there are parishes and schools that receive grant assistance for their evangelization programs.

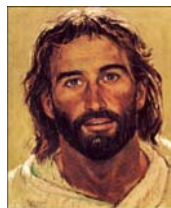

This collection also benefits our Catholic Home Missions. A mission diocese must often contend with high rates of poverty and a lack of educated pastoral and lay leadership. This appeal helps ease the struggle through grants that support priestly and religious vocations, faith formation, and education of leaders to attend to the unique needs of their faith communities. With your support, the Catholic Home Missions Appeal can continue to provide essential pastoral outreach in home mission dioceses. Last year the Appeal enabled the home mission diocese of Biloxi, Mississippi, to support 100% of the expense of educating 12 seminarians. These future priests are invaluable as this diocese faces retirement of many of their priests in the coming years.

Please be generous in your support as it will truly make a difference. Thank you. God bless you.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Joseph A. Pepe, D.D., J.C.D.
Bishop of Las Vegas

Christ Renews His Parish

Want to become Better acquainted with Christ?

We are inviting all women of Christ the King Catholic Community (19 and older and registered in the parish for at least 6 months) for a weekend of renewal at the CTK's junior high school youth ministry program is a multi-dimensional approach to youth ministry! Students learn about our Catholic faith through interesting and innovative programming; Religious Ed becomes a place where they get to hang out with friends, grow in their faith, and do real service that makes a real difference in our world.

To all parents:

I'm excited to announce a new change in EXPLORE! our middle school youth ministry and education program. Beginning this year, all age-appropriate retreats are INCLUDED in our religious ed. fees. Retreat experiences are a VITAL part of our youth ministry program here at Christ the King, and we don't want any student to miss the opportunity to take part in these life-changing experiences. While we are committed to making your child's week to week experience intriguing and fulfilling, we KNOW that retreats are an AMAZING way for students to increase their understanding of their faith, and really explore their own relationships with God, their families, the church and the world and even to each other. There is something about getting out of a regular routine that just seems to encourage growth. Over the next few weeks, watch for testimonies from some of our former students about the ways their retreat made a huge impact in their lives. Please see the fee schedule listed above. We're excited about sharing another wonderful year with our students.

Christian Formation

Becoming Catholic?

If you think you would like to become Catholic, or if you would just like to learn about Catholicism, we offer weekly opportunities to learn about the Catholic faith. These informal gatherings for coffee and conversation are held 7:00 pm each Monday (except major holidays) in Room 5 of the Activity Center. If, due to your schedule, you can't join us at our regular Monday night sessions, please call the parish office at 871-1904 and leave your name and phone number. We will do our best to accommodate you. Please contact Beth Thompson at 871-1904 ext. 230 if you have any questions.

Seeking Baptism for your Child?

Those NOT registered in the parish MUST attend the monthly Newcomers Meeting, held the 1st Tuesday of every month at 7:30 pm in the Activity Center. We require that you worship with us for at least six weeks before you call to register for the Alpha/Baptism sessions. Please call Robyn at 871-1904 ext. 232, M-F 8:00 am to 4:00 pm to register for the sessions.

No Baptisms may be scheduled until sessions and requirements are completed.

Pre-registration is required for Alpha/Baptism sessions.
