Today's Readings

Second Reading — If we have died with Christ we shall also live with Christ (2 Timothy 2:8-13).

Gospel — Ten lepers are healed by Jesus, but only one, a Samaritan, returns to give him thanks (Luke 17:11-19).

MASS TIMES

SATURDAY:

4:00 pm

SUNDAY:

7:30, 9:30, 11:30 am,
1:30 pm (Misa en Español)

HOLY DAYS:

THE WORD OF GOD UNCHAINED

There is no chaining the word of God! But how many times do we attempt to do that very thing? Had the followers of Jesus or the teachers of the law or the Pharisees been asked if the lepers should be cleansed or healed, the answer would most likely have been, "No, they deserve their condition."

The lepers would have been, perhaps, a mixed group, Galileans and Samaritans alike, the bond of their awful disease overcoming the pettiness of former religious bickering. Jesus' actions once again illustrate his vocation and ours: to reach out when healing is needed, to challenge when conversion is needed, to console when comfort is needed. He also follows his own advice from last week's Gospel: do what you have been commanded to do. When the cleansed Samaritan has returned to give thanks, Jesus does not take it as an opportunity for self-aggrandizement, but rather offers insight into faith.

DESENCADENA LA PALABRA DE DIOS

¡La Palabra de Dios no se puede encadenar! Pero, ¿cuántas veces tratamos de hacer eso precisamente? Si les hubiesen preguntado a los maestros de la Ley o a los fariseos si los leprosos debían ser curados, la respuesta muy probablemente habría sido: "No, ellos se merecen su condición".

Los leprosos habrían sido, quizá, un grupo mixto: Tanto galileos como samaritanos, las ataduras de su terrible enfermedad habría superado la pequeñez de antiguas rivalidades religiosas. La acción de Jesús de nuevo ilustra su vocación y la nuestra: ayudar cuando alguien necesita ser curado, retar cuando una conversión es necesaria, consolar cuando se necesita consuelo. Él también sigue su propio consejo del Evangelio de la semana pasada: hacer lo que se te ordena. Cuando el samaritano curado regresa a dar gracias, Jesús no aprovecha la oportunidad para vanagloriarse sino más bien ofrece una reflexión sobre la fe.

The Freedom Prayer Part II

Prayer is a lifting of the mind and heart to God. In the words of St. Teresa of Avila it is: "an intimate friendship, a frequent heart-to-heart conversation with God, whom we know loves us." Prayer leads to a deep inner peace, helps us to find God in the ordinary activities of life, and assists us in "loving our neighbor as ourselves."

There is no need to register; just come. Bring paper, a pen, and an open heart.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Christian liturgy has always contained an opportunity to make a choice for sharing. From the beginning, Christians pooled their resources, especially for the care of widows and orphans, at the weekly Eucharist. Over the years, the collection became detached from the liturgy and baskets or plates would be passed through the community while the Mass was going on at the altar, or contributions would be collected at the doors. In Milan's Ambrosian Rite, these gifts have always brought to the altar by lay people in procession. In German countries, the ancient custom was for the entire assembly to process with their gifts—first the men, then the women, then the priests and deacons—to offer their gifts at the altar. The old ceremony of canonization included a curious vestige of this procession: people would present the pope with two loaves of bread, two barrels of wine and water, five candles, and three cages containing pigeons or turtledoves!

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Muy popular entre los latinos es la monjita francesa santa Teresita, con sus rosas y crucifijo en mano. No cabe duda que ella fue una gran mujer, pero no podemos olvidar otra monja carmelita, la Teresota, o sea santa Teresa de Jesús (de Ávila).

En 1970, esta hispana fue la primera mujer nombrada Doctora de la Iglesia gracias a sus profundos escritos. Teresa vivió en el siglo XVI, una época de mucha reforma. Después de haber pasado varios años como religiosa, se dio cuenta que su vida personal necesitaba conversión. Así fue que se puso a orar y practicar el recogimiento del alma. Ella confiesa que pasarían casi 15 años antes de que estas prácticas dieran fruto. Ella no se dejó vencer durante esos quince años y siguió insistiendo en la oración hasta que Dios le concedió visiones y visitas celestiales. Su mística llena de gozos celestiales nunca la separó de la tierra. Ella no se escondía en la oración, mas bien salía de la oración para luchar en el mundo. Ella inspiró la reforma carmelitana y sigue inspirándonos hoy con sus escritos.

St. Paul tells us that God gives us the strength to carry out the plan he put in us to spread the gospel. In fact God gave us the Holy Spirit so that we can work in power and love and self-control. Do your words and actions shine forth the light of the gospel to others? In your relationships with others, especially your marriage relationship, do you work in power, love and self-control? Allow God transform your marriage so that it can shine the love of God; it may be the only gospel that some people ever hear! Sign up to attend the next Worldwide Marriage Encounter weekends in 2014, February 21-23, May 2-4 and September 26-28th in the Las Vegas area. Early registration is highly recommended. For more information, call Steve and Terri Sharp at (702) 589-0068 or go to lvloveyourspouse.org.

For information on Spanish-language weekends, call Javier and Maria Lopez at (702) 243-5934 or (702) 206-4270.

REFLECTING ON GOD'S WORD

When Jan's son and his buddies were given two weeks' notice to move out of their house, Jan proposed that they throw a cleaning/moving party. She provided the food, drinks, and cleaning supplies. They provided the music and the muscle. The party was a great success. The house got cleaned, the move was completed in one afternoon, and everyone went home happy. Later that week a thank-you card arrived from one of her son's housemates. "Thanks for the party, Jan. We couldn't have done it without you. You're the greatest. Adam."

Do we take the time to reflect back on each day or do we just keep moving on? Do we recognize the healing in our lives or focus only on the suffering? Do we realize that "we couldn't have done it without" God or do we attribute our successes to good luck or our own hard work? Do we, like Naaman and the Samaritan leper, make it a habit to express our thanks to God in public praise and in lives of service?

Living God's Word

The Eucharist is our habitual, public praise and thanks to God. We give thanks for the gifts of creation and the covenant. We give thanks for the gift of redemption that is ours through Jesus Christ and for the gifts that the Holy Spirit pours out on us. In the Eucharist each of us should also give thanks for the gifts of God in our lives.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

Enthusiasm for the Atrium is contagious:

On our second week of classes the children have already decided what "works" they would like to choose – and that thought has been in their minds since we closed the doors early in the summer. The kingdom of Heaven awaits us...

We apologize for the inconvenience of dropping some classes and we thank you parents that moved your children. Religious Education is vital to the child and we continually appreciate those parents that take the effort to bring your child year after year. There are classes 3 through High School at our parish!!! Is your child a part of it? There is more to Religious Education than First Communion and Confirmation!
