A CHRISTMAS REPRISE

The Church's celebration three weeks ago of the Baptism of the Lord signaled the "official" end of The Christmas season. Today's feast of the Presentation of the Lord seems to extend the Incarnation celebration a bit longer. In fact, some have called this feast a "second Epiphany."

The first reading recalls the anticipation of Advent, As Malachi writes, "Lo, I am sending my messenger to prepare the way before me." The reading from Hebrews reminds us of the Incarnation, proclaiming that Jesus had a "share" in our own "blood and flesh." The Gospel finds the infant Jesus on his first visit to Jerusalem and his human parents once again surprised and in awe over the events surround his birth. In the simplicity of the manger, in the grandeur of the temple, in the domesticity of Nazareth, Jesus comes. May we come to know him and so be filled with "wisdom" and the "favor of God."

RETORNO A LA NAVIDAD

La celebración de hace tres semanas del Bautismo del Señor señaló el fin "oficial" del tiempo de Navidad para la Iglesia. La fiesta de hoy de la Presentación del Señor parece extender la celebración un poco más allá. En realidad, algunos han nombrado esta fiesta una "Segunda Epifanía". La primera lectura nos recuerda la anticipación del Adviento, como escribe Malaquías: "Envío a mi mensajero para que prepare el camino ante mí". La lectura de los Hebreos nos recuerda la Encarnación, proclamando que Jesús tuvo una "parte" de la misma "carne y sangre". El Evangelio encuentra al niño Jesús en su primera visita a Jerusalén, y a sus padres una vez más sorprendidos y asombrados por los acontecimientos de su nacimiento. En la sencillez del pesebre, en la grandeza del templo, en la domesticidad de Nazaret, Jesús viene. ¡Que lleguemos a conocerlo y por ello nos encontremos llenos de "sabiduría" y de la "gracia de Dios!"

A Word from Fr. Ray

We have been working hard in the gift shop taking inventory and reorganizing, and the task is nearly finished. I want to thank Kelly Bulgatz for volunteering her time along with her family for diving into the abyss of stock and sorting everything out. The new equipment that will help with keeping a stable inventory is also now installed, so the rest of the task is tagging and scanning all the inventory.

I would also like to thank all the other volunteers that helped out in this task, as it did indeed take a lot of people to complete the inventory and sort out all of the stock. We are hoping to reopen sometime in the second week of February, and we will also have a clearance sale out in the courtyard, so keep your eyes peeled for the announcements for the clearance sale.

Again, I apologize for any inconvenience in reorganizing the gift shop, and I thank you all for your patience.

With much love and gratitude, Fr. Ray

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

By Candlemas, forty days after Christmas, February 2, the season of Christ's coming has depleted our candle supply. Soon, the parish will order a new paschal candle from a catalogue or candlemaker, or in some communities, wax will be collected to be melted and molded. Last year's paschal candle shows the wear and tear of summer heat, or many funerals or baptisms. Paschal candles have been around since at least the fourth century, when Constantine's biographer Eusebius reported that the night of the sacred vigil was "transformed into the brilliancy of day, by lighting throughout the city pillars of wax, while burning lamps in every place so that the splendor of this night was brighter than the brightest daylight."

Light was a precious commodity in the ancient world, and this lavish use of precious beeswax was a sign of the Christian's call to bear Christ's light into the world's darkness. In a pre-electric age, a whole city aglow from the paschal flame must have been a glorious sight, and a reminder to every baptized Christian of our vocation to "be the light of the world."

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

El día 2 de Febrero la Iglesia universal celebra la Presentación del Niño Jesús en el Templo. La costumbre judía dictaba que 40 días después del parto la madre debía ir al templo para ser purificada y junto con su marido ofrecer su hijito(a) a Dios. En la religión cristiana esta costumbre fue desarrollándose en la presentación de los niños en el templo, dejando en el olvido la purificación de la madre. En Málaga, España, la presentación de los niños se hace el día 2 de febrero cuando todos los niños bautizados durante el último año se presentan en la congregación de la Divina Pastora. En muchas partes de Latinoamérica los niños se presentan a los tres años de edad. Aunque no es un rito oficial de la Iglesia, muchas familias hispanas continúan esta práctica religiosa, presentando su hijo(a) a la comunidad parroquial durante la Misa dominical. El rito es uno de agradecimiento y consagración a Dios. El sacerdote bendice al niño pero es la tarea de los padres educarlos en lo que significa ser consagrado a Dios.

Healing & Growth

All Welcome at
Small Church Community
(SCC)

"Where ordinary people
connect life and faith
on a regular basis."

The early church met in homes to celebrate and nurture their common faith. Doing that built their relationships and made them stronger.

We are a large and diverse faith community so it may be easy to "get lost in the crowd." That's why Small Church Communities are important to a parish like ours, which has experienced a lot of change, growth and challenge in recent years.

This is your invitation to be part of a Small Church Community (SCC). SCCs formally will begin meeting during Lent. Watch for details in The Messenger and for fellow parishioners' stories of healing and growing in faith at upcoming Masses.
