May 4, 2014 ~ Third Sunday of Easter

Today's Readings

First Reading —
God has raised the crucified Jesus, who now pours forth the Holy Spirit upon us (Acts 2:14, 22-33).

Psalm — Lord, you will show us the path of life (Psalm 16).

Second Reading —
Our faith and hope are in God who raised Jesus from the dead (1 Peter 1:17-21).

Gospel — Through his words and in the breaking of the bread, the risen Christ made himself known to two disciples on their way to Emmaus (Luke 24:13-35).

MASS TIMES

SATURDAY:
4:00 pm

SUNDAY:
7:30, 9:30, 11:30 am,
1:30 pm (Misa en Español)
4:00 pm

WEEKDAYS:
Mon - Sat ~ 8:00 am

HOLY DAYS:
8:00 am and 7:00 pm

RECOGNIZING JESUS

St. Peter speaks to us twice today. In the first reading we hear an excerpt from his sermon on Pentecost; in the second, part of his first Letter. Once a frightened, uneducated fisherman who often said just the wrong thing, now Peter is speaking what he knows to be true. Everything Jesus had said now makes sense. His death and rising were all part of God's plan, and our faith and hope can be centered on God. Today's Gospel tells the story of Jesus' walk to Emmaus with two of the disciples. Frightened, sad, and confused, the two don't recognize Jesus, who tells them what we heard Peter say above: all this had to happen as part of God's plan. In the end, these disciples recognize Jesus as we are to recognize him—in the breaking of the bread.

RECONOZCAN A JESÚS

San Pedro nos habla dos veces hoy. En la primera lectura, escuchamos una parte de su sermón el día de Pentecostés; en la segunda, parte de su primera carta. Antes, un pescador asustado y sin mucha educación que a menudo decía lo que no debía, ahora dice lo que él sabe es la verdad. Todo lo que Jesús había dicho ahora tiene sentido. Su muerte y resurrección eran parte del plan de Dios y nuestra fe y esperanza se pueden centrar en Dios. El Evangelio de hoy nos relata la historia de la caminata de Jesús hacia Emaús con dos de los discípulos. Asustados, tristes y confusos, ninguno de los dos reconoció a Jesús, quien les dice lo mismo que escuchamos de Pedro en la lectura anterior: todo eso sucedió como parte del plan de Dios. Al final, los discípulos reconocieron a Jesús por la misma acción que nosotros debemos reconocerlo— al partir el Pan.

A Word from Fr. Ray

Happy Easter! We're already in our Third Week in the Octave of Easter. How blessed we were last Sunday with our children receiving their First Holy Communion. I'm telling you, these kids get cuter every year. It's such a glorious time for our parish when our children come into full communion with all of us. Again, many thanks to Beth Thompson and her staff and teachers that made this all possible. Many thanks go out also to our parents that made the effort to get their kids to the classes, and not to mention the great job the kids made in attending the classes and finally making their First Holy Communion. Be sure to keep them signed up for regular Faith Formation Classes offered by our Faith Formation Ministry.

We are stepping up to plate on the 18th of May at the 4:00 PM Mass for the Sacrament of Confirmation. Thanks again to Jason Ealy for preparing our Conformandi and for the wonderful success of the Confirmation Retreat at Big Bear. Please join Bishop Pepe and our Conformandi at this most jubilant celebration of our youth.

We are almost at our goal for pledges to CSA 2014. Let's make an effort to make our goal. We're lagging in both weekly contributions and the pledges to CSA this year, and we're already half way through 2014. We really need to make an effort to keep up the Sunday collection as we are falling back on our budgeted income at a rate of $20,000 a month. We currently are about $60,000 behind in our payments for liability insurance, Workmen's Comp, Retirement and insurance for the campus buildings. The monies that are going towards the repairs and maintenance is from designated funds from private benefactors and miscellaneous funds directed to the building and maintenance fund.

QUESTIONS FOR SUNDAY, MAY 11, 2014

"If you are patient when you suffer for doing what is good, this is a grace before God." 1 PT 2:20-25 What does "suffer" mean in this context?

"So Jesus said again, "Amen, amen, I say to you, I am the gate for the sheep." JOHN 10:1-10 What is the connection to this gate and eternal life?

"If you are patient when you suffer for doing what is good, this is a grace before God." 1 PT 2:20-25

With much love and gratitude, Fr. Ray

CHRISTIAN STUDENT FELLOWSHIP THANKS US FOR OUR HOSPITALITY

Over 40 students came to our parish facility in March from the University of Kentucky for dinner while they were visiting in Las Vegas to do Outreach ministry.

"Dear Jane and fellow parishioners, We cannot say thank you enough for providing a meal for our group as we served in Las Vegas. Your generosity truly made our trip that much better, and we loved getting to see how Christ is working through your community to bring the Gospel to Las Vegas! Thank you so much again. We won't forget your sacrifice for us! CSF staff and students."

Special thanks go to Maureen Morley, Robyn Runco and Gina Pignatello and the parish for time and contributions to make this happen.

ELEMENTARY SCHOOL MENTORING PROGRAM

Would you be interested in participating with other parishioners to act as mentoring tutors for students having difficulties with their studies at local elementary, middle or high schools? Tutors must have taken Protecting God's Children seminar through the diocese, have taken CCSD training, and be fingerprinted in order to be a parish representative in the schools. Registration for CCSD training which will be held on June 17th is being taken now. Call Jane Fransioli in office, 702-871-1904, to register. You can register for a Protecting God's Children class by going to www.virtus.org. The next class at Christ the King will be held on May 6th at 6:00 p.m. You can be fingerprinted by calling Gina in the parish office at (702) 871-1904.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITIONS

“Mystagogy,” reflection on the Easter mysteries, is the chief task of these great fifty days, a “Pentecost,” in other words, of grace and renewal. Every Sunday we have accounts of Resurrection appearances of the Lord, and sketches of the earliest efforts at being church. Lent is described as a journey to the font, and Easter may be described in similar terms, since at the very beginning an angel tells the apostles that the Risen Lord “has gone before you into Galilee.” Galilee, of course, was the place where Jesus did his finest work, his preaching, his healing, his gathering the lost and the marginalized to the table. At Easter, we hurry to catch up, putting our renewed baptismal promises to work in our own personal Galilees, our little worlds waiting for a word of grace, a healing, an act of pardon, an invitation to share a meal. The water often splashed on our Sunday assemblies in Eastertide remind us: these are the golden, shining days of grace, days to nurture the heart, to speak to one another about things that really matter.

LITURGY CORNER

“God gave you a gift of 86,400 seconds today. Have you used one to say “thank you?”

We take the time and make use of some of those 86,400 seconds today and offer a great big “THANK YOU” to all who helped make our Lenten, Holy Week and Easter celebrations so prayer and spirit filled. Truly the Lord was present and most pleased! There is always risk of leaving people out when thanking others but with that being said, please allow us the indulgence of naming a few here:

- Fr. Ray, Deacon Jacob, Deacon Rich and the entire staff for their constant support, cooperation and help.
- To Mark, Mike and Dave in our maintenance department, you are wonderful.
- Bob LaPorte, Alicia Marty and all of our “Sound/Lighting” volunteers for the countless hours of work in setting up, doing all things “technical” that enabled our liturgies to run smoothly. So much goes on behind the scenes and these people are our “unsung heroes!”
- Our Parish Liturgy Committee members who have walked the journey with us in planning and preparing our liturgical seasons/liturgies. A special “thanks” to Mary Perren, Maria Patino and Mike Dunnegan as well as Christine Kellar. Each committee member is the “wind beneath our wings.” You have a special place in heaven.
- To all of our liturgical ministers who came forward and were there on the “front lines.” ~ Hospitality, Eucharistic Ministers, Mass and Table Coordinators, Bread Bakers.
- To all of our Readers and Musicians who helped our liturgy come to life through word and song. You are AWESOME people! The giving of your time and talents does not go unnoticed by God. A special “thanks” to Gina Aiken and Mary Fulton for leading the music on Holy Thursday and Good Friday evenings.
- To Don and Desiree Bowsher and the entire cast of “Born For This”...we know it is a true labor of love that brings you to present our noon Good Friday service each year. You inspire and touch so many through your sacrifice and efforts.
- To Maureen Morley, Gina Pignatello, Robyn Runco, the CRHP ladies and members of our Youth Group under Jason Ealy and all those who helped in preparing the simple soup and food for our Triduum meals/reception.
- To Gail and Tom Leighten, Joe Ryan and Eva Iwafuchi and her team in helping to make our church so beautiful in presentation with environment and flowers.
- Finally, to our CTK community who prays with us each week...we love to see you in the seats singing and praising God. May the Risen Lord continue to bless you abundantly!

Love, Mary Ryan & Cathy Bruzzese

CTK GROUPS

Centering Prayer every Tuesday at 8:45 am is a method of prayer, which prepares us to receive the gift of God's presence, traditionally called contemplative prayer. It consists of responding to the Spirit of Christ by consenting to God's presence and action within. For more information please call Gil Canlas at (702) 365-9948.

Devotions

QUÉDATE CON NOSOTROS, SEÑOR

Camina con nosotros, Señor, por el camino de tu resurrección. Explícanos a nosotros, tardos para creer, lo que la Escritura nos dice de ti. Parte el pan de la Eucaristía con nosotros cuando compartimos nuestras vidas con los hermanos y hermanas.

Quédate con nosotros cada vez que se acerca la noche y la luz se apaga en nuestros corazones.

STAY WITH US, LORD

Walk with us, Lord, along the road of resurrection! Explain for us, so slow to believe, the things that Scripture says of you. Break the bread of the Eucharist with us whenever we share our lives with our brothers and sisters. Stay with us each time night approaches and the daylight fades in our hearts!

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS PRAYER PROGRAM

Christ the King's chapter of the Knights of Columbus will sponsor the Marian Hour of Prayer

dedicated to

Our Lady of the Immaculate Conception
Tuesday, May 6th and Wednesday, May 7th
9:00 am until 12 noon in the Church

Why not 'stop in' and take this opportunity to see the statue which is traveling throughout the state and spend some time praying to our Blessed Mother.

HOSPITALITY MINISTERS NEEDED

We are in need of Hospitality Ministers, especially at the 4:00 pm Saturday and 4:00 pm Sunday Liturgies. This ministry involves greeting people as they arrive for mass, giving direction during communion, and various other simple tasks. If you like people, and feel you may be called to this ministry, please call either Teresa Fawley at 953-6332 or Mary or Cathy in the office at 871-1904.

REFLEXIONEMOS SOBRE LA PALABRA DE DIOS

Algunas veces e inesperadamente algo nuevo se desliza sobre nuestro horizonte y nos agarra desprevenidos. Nos levantamos una mañana, nos quedamos parados al pie de la cama mientras pensamos que es bueno estar vivo; entonces nos sonreímos brevemente antes de volver a concentrarnos en los quehaceres del día. O nos sentamos con un amigo al mediodía para almorzar, nos contamos historias y reímos al recordar cosas de la vida de los dos, y en medio de todo eso pensamos para nosotros mismos que este momento presente ha valido todas las luchas y lágrimas de la vida. O nos sentamos en la rara quietud de una casa donde raramente hay quietud y soñamos despiertos acerca de todas las cosas que han sucedido en esta casa en el transcurso de los días y los años y nos damos cuenta de que dentro de esas paredes además de vida ha habido amor y madurez, y ahora oímos el tirar de una puerta y nuestro día regresa al tumultuoso caos. Todos esos son momentos de gracia, momentos en que las sombras se esfuman aunque sea brevemente y vemos con mucha más claridad que nunca antes, que ésa es la mera presencia de Dios en que nos movemos y existimos. Entonces, por supuesto, el momento desaparece y queremos contárselo a alguien y tal vez tratemos de hacerlo, pero al final de cuentas nuestras palabras no alcanzan a describir la experiencia. Después de todo, ¿con qué palabras se puede explicar que por un breve momento caminamos por la vida junto a Dios de una manera más consciente que nunca antes? Me pregunto si eso fue parte de lo que sucedió cuando Cleofás y su amigo se encontraron con el extraño en el camino cuando iban de Jerusalén hacia Emaús. ¿Cómo es posible que no se dieran cuenta que ese extraño era Jesús? Tal vez la gracia haya sido que por la fe llegaron a reconocer al Señor Jesús entre ellos y en realidad no tenía importancia si la luz les llegó rápida o lentamente. Lo importante es que sucedió. —Padre Joseph J. Juknialis Derechos de autor © 2013, World Library Publications. Todos los derechos reservados.

REFLECTING ON GOD'S WORD

Sometimes new worlds unexpectedly slip up over our horizon and catch us off guard. One morning we get up, stand at the foot of our bed, look out the window, and oh so briefly think how good it is to be alive; and for a moment we smile to ourselves before resuming the arranging of our day. Or we sit with a friend at a noonday lunch, telling stories and laughing over what our lives have been; and somewhere in the midst of it all we think to ourselves that what is happening right at this moment is worth all the struggles and tears of life. Or we sit by ourselves in the rare quiet of a house that is hardly ever so, and daydream, and think about what has gone on in this house over all the days and years, and realize that more than living has happened here, that love has, and maturing; and then the back door slams and our day returns to its tumultuous chaos. These are all moments of grace, moments when the shadows part if only briefly, and we see more clearly than we ever have before that it's the very presence of God in which we live and move. Then of course the moment disappears, and we'd like to tell someone about it and maybe we try, but in the end our words fall short. After all, how does one find words to explain how for a brief while we walked life with God more consciously than ever before? I find myself wondering if that was part of what took place as Cleopas and his friend found themselves joined by a stranger on their journey from Jerusalem to Emmaus. How could they not know this stranger was Jesus? Maybe the grace of it was that through faith they came to recognize the Lord Jesus among them, and it didn't much matter whether that dawning of light came quickly or slowly. What did matter was that it happened.
