Today's Readings

First Reading —

To meet their growing needs, the community chooses seven reputable men to serve the new Greek believers (Acts 6:1-7).

Psalm — Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you (Psalm 33).

Second Reading —

We, like living stones, let ourselves be built into a spiritual house (1 Peter 2:4-9).

Gospel — “Show us the Father,” Philip asks Jesus. To which Jesus replies: “Whoever sees me, sees the Father” (John 14:1-12).

LAS SENDAS DEL AMOR

En el Evangelio de hoy escuchamos parte del discurso de Jesús en la Última Cena que relata el Evangelio de san Juan. “Soy el camino, la verdad y la vida”, Jesús asegura a sus discípulos. En ese momento no entendieron lo que él les quería decir, ellos buscaban respuestas sencillas. “Muéstranos al Padre”, Felipe le ruega. Pero la primera y la segunda lectura nos muestran cómo la Iglesia joven entendía las palabras de Jesús. El increíble crecimiento de la Iglesia los llevó a seleccionar a siete hombres para que hicieran las obras de servicio necesarias para tantos miembros. Los seguidores de Jesús habían crecido con tales número que Pedro podía exclamar en su carta que Cristo, “la piedra rechazada” se había convertido en la piedra angular a quien todos podían acudir para su salvación. Aun hasta nuestros días, él es realmente el camino, la verdad y la vida.

THE WAY

In today's Gospel reading we hear part of Jesus' discourse at the Last Supper as reported in the Gospel of John. “I am the way and the truth and life,” Jesus assures his disciples. At that time they did not understand what he meant; they wanted easy answers. “Just show us the Father,” Philip begged. But the first and second readings show us how the early church came to understand Jesus' words. The amazing growth of the church led them to select seven men to do the works of service needed with so many new members. The followers of Jesus had grown in such numbers that Peter could exclaim in his Letter over the fact that Christ, the “rejected stone,” was now the cornerstone on whom the salvation of all the world rests. Down to this present day, he is truly the way, the truth, and the life.

A Word from Fr. Ray

Happy Easter! With the commencement of our Conformandi this Sunday, this pretty much marks the end of our Faith Formation Program for our children until we resume in the Fall. I would like to thank Jason Ealy and his team for doing such a great program for our kids, and how blessed we are to have 45 of our children and 13 adults making their Confirmation today at the 4:00 PM Mass. I am so proud of our kids that stuck it out all year long, and how wonderfully they came together during their Confirmation Retreat. Many thanks go out to our parents that made the effort to get their kids to the classes. Be sure to keep your children signed up for future Faith Formation Classes offered by our Faith Formation Ministry.

We are at 99% of our goal for pledges to CSA 2014. Let's finish our pledges now to make our goal. Please note that summer is upon us and our collections have a tendency to lag in weekly contributions. Unfortunately, this is the most expensive season for us for our utilities with much higher water and power bills. We currently are still running a deficit of about $60,000 in our payments for liability insurance, Workmen's Comp, Retirement and insurance for the campus buildings. The monies that are going towards the repairs and maintenance is from designated funds from private benefactors and miscellaneous funds directed to the building and maintenance fund. So we all need to make an effort to keep our collections up during the summer season.

QUESTIONS FOR SUNDAY, MAY 26, 2014

Always be ready to give an explanation to anyone who asks you for a reason for your hope, but do it with gentleness and reverence: 1Peter 3:15

Have you ever come across someone that is really strong headed about their religion? What is your reaction when that person is seemingly wanting you to come to their declaration of faith which might be different from yours?

With much love and gratitude, Fr. Ray

EUCCHARISTIC
MINISTER NEEDED
WILLOW CREEK
CARE CENTER
ONE SUNDAY A
MONTH AT 1:00 pm

We take a Eucharist service to the residents living at Willow Creek Care Home located directly behind St. Rose Dominican Hospital St. Martin on Warm Springs and Durango every Sunday at 1:00 pm. A team of ministers has been rotating the responsibility serving once a month. Recently, one of the ministers on our team had to step back from the ministry; we now need to replace that person. If you can spare a half hour once a month to bring Eucharist to shut-ins, please call Jane at (702) 871-1904 or email: jane@ctkccnv.org

NEVADANS FOR THE COMMON GOOD CONVENTION

Over thirty members of our parish attended the 2nd Las Vegas Valley Community Convention held at Cashman Theatre last Tuesday, May 13th. Clergy and representatives of churches, mosques and synagogues held out their placards in support of the vulnerable in our community. Issues on the agenda were: the elderly, human trafficking, immigration and integration, public education, and health care. If you were unable to attend the convention but would like more information about the organization, please call Jane at (702) 871-1904 or email: jane@ctkccnv.org

SPARE TIME FOR PICK-UPS

We often pick up food for our pantry from businesses which are disposing of dated produce or bread. If you have some available time to help with these pick-ups, please call Jane in the office at (702) 871-1904

ELEMENTARY SCHOOL MENTORING PROGRAM

Would you be interested in participating with other parishioners to act as mentoring tutors for students having difficulties with their studies at local elementary, middle or high schools? Tutors must have taken Protecting God's Children seminar through the diocese, have taken CCSD training, and be fingerprinted in order to be a parish representative in the schools. Registration for CCSD training which will be held on June 17th is being taken now. Call Jane Fransioli in office, 702-871-1904, to register. You can register for a Protecting God's Children class by going to www.virtus.org. The next class at Christ the King will be held on May 6th at 6:00 p.m. You can be fingerprinted by calling Gina in the parish office, (702) 871-1904.

FAMILY PROMISE ARRIVES THIS WEEK AT OUR PARISH,
MAY 18 – 25th

Our guests are here this week to stay in our facility overnight. Please remember your commitment, if you have volunteered to visit or make a meal. This ministry would not be possible without the energies, funds, and willingness of our entire parish community.

CTK GROUPS

Centering Prayer every Tuesday at 8:45 am is a method of prayer, which prepares us to receive the gift of God's presence, traditionally called contemplative prayer. It consists of responding to the Spirit of Christ by consenting to God's presence and action within. For more information please call Gil Canlas at (702) 365-9948.

Devotions

- Holy Infant Jesus Novena every Monday following the 8 am Mass.
- Our Lady of Perpetual Help Novena every Wednesday following the 8 am Mass.
- Divine Mercy Devotion ~ every Friday following the 8 am Mass.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITIONS

Eastern Christians have no sacrament of "confirmation," but they have always had the custom of richly anointing the newly baptized in myron, or sacred chrism. They also give even infants a taste of the Precious Blood, thereby doing away with any notion of "First Communion" in later childhood. In the West, although we too have an anointing with chrism for the newly baptized, for centuries we have normally reserved a second anointing for the bishop, sometimes many years after baptism. There are many reasons for this, not the least of which is the fact that in early times the bishop was the ordinary person to officiate at baptism, not the presbyter (priest). The bishop did it all, from plunging the catechumens into the font, to pouring chrism over them, to immediately celebrating the Eucharist. When bishops began to cede some of their ministry to the ranks of presbyters, they desired to maintain a strong relationship with baptism. Thus it was decided that the solemn post-baptismal anointing, the laying on of hands, and the prayer for the gifts of the Holy Spirit were to be detached from infant baptism. So, to the present day, we have two anointings after baptism: one by the priest, and the other normally by the bishop. By the fifth century, the word "confirmation" had surfaced to refer to this second anointing.

REFLEXIONEMOS SOBRE LA PALABRA DE DIOS

Durante años ha habido varios programas de televisión, cuyo enfoque ha sido reconstruir y reconfigurar casas. Por más de treinta años el programa This Old House (Esta casa antigua) de la cadena de acceso público PBS ha venido ofreciendo consejos para reparar casas. Más recientemente el programa Extreme Makeover (Remodelaciones extremas) lleva su equipo a un hogar y transforma la casa según las serias exigencias de sus ocupantes; la salud y la discapacidad, o el poder servir mejor a una comunidad más grande son a veces razones para la remodelación. Desde los comienzos la Iglesia se ha visto como una casa de piedras vivas, edificada en Jesucristo, un recinto donde las personas vienen a refugiarse y alimentarse, donde pueden aliviar su carga y encontrar consuelo antes de ser enviadas de nuevo al mundo a fin de hacerlo un mejor lugar para vivir. Cristo resucitado es quien ofrece verdaderamente una "remodelación extrema". Podemos confiar en él para que nos reconfigure de manera que seamos un recinto donde el Espíritu del Señor hace su residencia permanente y trae sus dones para beneficio del mundo. Desde los comienzos han existido desafíos para quienes forman la Iglesia así como una necesidad constante de renovación para poder atender las necesidades de la época. Nuestros esfuerzos para hacer de la Iglesia un hogar donde abunde el amor, la misericordia, la justicia y la paz deben llevarnos a construir aún más firmemente sobre Jesús, nuestra piedra angular. Cuando llegue el momento preciso, el hogar que él prometió prepararnos y llevarnos debe sernos fácilmente reconocible. No debería ser mucho más diferente que la Iglesia en la que hemos vivido toda nuestra vida.

REFLECTING ON GOD'S WORD

Over the years several television shows have focused on rebuilding and reshaping houses. For over thirty years PBS's This Old House has offered tips on repairing homes. More recently, Extreme Makeover takes a team into someone's home and transforms it to meet the serious needs of its occupants, often dealing with health or disability issues or trying to serve the larger community in some way. From the beginning the church has been imagined as a house of living stones, built on Jesus Christ, a dwelling place where people come for shelter and sustenance, where they can set down their burdens and find comfort and consolation before being sent back out in the world to make it a better place to live. The risen Christ is truly one who offers an "extreme makeover." He can be trusted to shape us into a dwelling place where the Spirit of the Lord takes up permanent residence, bringing gifts to benefit the world. From the beginning there have been challenges for those who form the church, and an ongoing need for renovation to meet the needs of the time. Our efforts to make the church a home where love, mercy, justice, and peace will be found should lead us to build more firmly on Jesus our cornerstone. When the time comes, the home he promised to prepare for us and take us to should be easily recognizable. It should not be that much different from the church we have been living in all our lives.

Small Church Communities; a way of being church

Small Church Communities are groups of 6 to 8 people who gather in homes to reflect on the scriptures of the upcoming Sunday and their significance in their lives. All ministries and organizations connected to Christ the King are asked to use a simple formula for prayer as they gather: Read one of the scriptures for the upcoming Sunday. Take a few moments to reflect on one of the questions related to the scripture (in Fr. Ray's column). Invite individuals to share their response with the person next to them; encourage people to share with someone they do not know well. Before we know it we have grown closer as a community!
