Today's Readings

First Reading —
All you who thirst,
come to the water!

You without money, come to the feast! (Isaiah 55:1-3).

Psalm — The
hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs (Psalm 145).

Second Reading
— Nothing can separate us from the love of God in Christ (Romans
8:35, 37-39).

Gospel — All ate
until satisfied; they collected twelve baskets of what was left over Matthew 14:13-21).

GRACE IS EVERYWHERE

Grace is everywhere. People of faith act on this belief. As Christians we are called to reach deeply into ourselves and find God's presence there. We are called to reach outside ourselves and find God there, too. The reality of grace has sustained and nourished people beyond numbering. The church never tires of telling the story of the loaves and fishes.

It is narrated no less than six times in the four Gospels. We imagine the hesitant apostles reaching into the baskets and finding bread, always more bread. We anticipate the ending. The apostles will wear out before the bread runs out. At another time and place, Isaiah also spoke of an abundance, this time of water, sweet honey, and rich milk. Always, always God is a gift-giver, and we the receivers. Our response is doxology, or praise. In the second reading Paul provides the words and attitude. Praise is everywhere.

LA GRACIA ESTÁ EN TODAS PARTES

Esta semana celebramos la fiesta de la Virgen de Copacabana. Copacabana es la capital de Manco Cápac, Bolivia. En dicho lugar, un descendiente de los reyes incas, Francisco Tito Yupanqui buscó esculpir una imagen de la Candelaria. Su primera imagen fue colocada en la iglesia por su párroco, pero llegó un nuevo párroco quien la sacó del templo por tosca y fea. El pobre de Tito viajó a Potosí, Bolivia, donde emprendió cursos de escultura. Con el tiempo esculpió otra imagen de la Candelaria. Esta vez estudió varias imágenes de María y mandó ofrecer una Misa a la Santísima Trinidad pidiéndole la inspiración necesaria para esculpir una imagen digna de la Virgen. Los años de práctica en su arte, unidos a su devoción, le ayudaron a esculpir una imagen fina y bella que en 1583 fue colocada en su propio santuario. La Virgen de Copacabana tiene uno de los primeros santuarios marianos en América Latina. Curiosamente, se celebra el 5 de agosto, día que María hizo nevar en la antigua ciudad de Roma, Italia, para mostrar dónde deseaba tener su primer templo.

A Word from Fr. Ray

The monsoons are here, REALLY HERE!

I experienced firsthand the devastation of the flash floods on Mt. Charleston on Monday. I spent the day with parishioners that have a home in Rainbow Canyon. We sat and watched in horror their neighbor's home being devastated by the wall of water that came down the road also devastating the newly prepared Rainbow Canyon Rd. that was ready to be paved on Monday. We all escaped from any harm, and I am thankful to the fast response we got from the fire department at Mt. Charleston.

Now that we are in monsoon season here in the desert it is worthy to mention that all of us must heed the warnings of "Turn around and not drown." Be careful out there when flash floods occur.

Questions for Sunday August 10, 2014:

Elijah hears God's voice in a whisper. How is it you hear God's voice in your own life experience? 1 Kings: 19:9, 11-13

"O you of little faith, why did you doubt?" How do these words resonate in your faith right now? MT: 14:22-33.

With much love and gratitude, Fr. Ray

Una Palabra de P. Ray

Los monzones están aquí, ¡realmente aquí!

Experimenté de primera mano la devastación de las inundaciones en el Monte Charleston el lunes. Pasé el día con los feligreses que tienen una casa en Rainbow Canyon. Nos sentamos y vimos con horror como la casa de su vecino fue devastada por el agua que bajaba por la carretera también devastando la calle recientemente preparada Rainbow Canyon Road. que estaba listo para ser pavimentado el lunes. Todos nos escapamos de cualquier daño, y estoy agradecido a la rápida respuesta que obtuvimos de los bomberos del Monte. Charleston.

Ahora que estamos en temporada de monzones en el desierto, es digno de mencionar que todos debemos prestar atención a las advertencias de "Date la vuelta y no te ahogaras." Ten cuidado cuando se producen inundaciones.

Preguntas para el domingo 10 agosto, 2014:

Elías oye la voz de Dios en un susurro. ¿Cómo escuchas la voz de Dios en nuestra propia experiencia de vida.? 1 Reyes: 19:09, 11-13

"¡Hombre de poca fe!, ¿por qué dudaste?" ¿Cómo resuenan estas palabras en nuestra fe en estos momentos? MT: 14:22-33.

Con mucho amor y gratitud, P. Ray

BECOME A MEMBER OF NEVADANS FOR THE COMMON GOOD HERE AT CHRIST THE KING

Nevadans for the Common Good is a "voice for the voiceless" in Las Vegas. As Christians, we are called to embrace the problems that face our local community. We can do this individually, working with our neighbors, or also, we can act as the body of Christ, working towards more just policies on the issues of the vulnerable around us: i.e. the elderly, immigration and integration, human trafficking, public education, health care, and neighborhood blight.

For more information, call Jane in the church office at (702) 871-1904 or email her at: jane@ctkccnv.org

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITIONS

Most parishes are now aware of the catechumenate and the journey of new faithful in the RCIA, but this form of sacramental initiation disappeared from view in the thirteenth century along with many other ancient practices. Life back then was hard, and often too short, and priests were increasingly insistent about the responsibility of parents to baptize children in danger of death. Since everyone in that society was under unimaginable threat from famine, warfare, and plague, the liturgical rites changed quickly. Everyone was in danger of death all the time. No longer were babies immersed in fonts, being lowered into the water, although the ritual books never backed down from immersion. Infusion was the new way, a simple pouring of a few drops of water on the child's forehead. The catechumenate collapsed, being reduced to the recitation of the Creed and an Our Father at every baptism. Amazingly, any provision for adult baptism was shelved, so that as late as the 1950s, a person being baptized was presumed to be an infant, unable to answer for him or herself. Questions of creed and commitment were put to the godparents, not to the person being baptized. Even Dorothy Day and Thomas Merton, famous adult converts, remained mute at their baptisms while their sponsors answered for them. In hindsight all this appears strikingly odd, yet it was accepted as the way things were. We have good reason to give thanks for the vigorous reforms of the last fifty years! —Rev. James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

REFLECTING ON GOD'S WORD

Two years ago Michon and her children had gotten their own apartment and left the safety of the women's shelter behind. Three weeks ago she brought the children back for the first time since they had left. They came for the feast celebrating the grand opening of the shelter's new addition. The feast had felt just like old times, only better, with plenty of speeches, laughter, tears, and hugs, and more than enough food to go around. Michon was glad to be able to bring a big chicken salad to share. There had been plenty of meals when she had had nothing to contribute. At the feast everyone commented on how happy Michon's children looked and how much they'd grown. Since then she had already returned to the shelter four times as a volunteer. A feast could be defined as a large gathering of people to share food and memories in celebration of a significant event or vision. Feasts have an amazing power to heal and nourish our spirits, to bind us together in love, and motivate us to care for one another. The feasts in today's scriptures illustrate the miraculous physical and spiritual nourishment that takes place when we gather for the Eucharist, to celebrate the memory and promise of "the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord" (Romans 8:39).

REFLEXIONEMOS SOBRE LA PALABRA DE DIOS

Hace dos años Milagros y sus hijos se fueron a vivir a su propio apartamento dejando atrás el albergue para mujeres. Hace tres semanas ella llevó a sus hijos allí de nuevo y por primera vez desde que salieron. Vinieron a la celebración de la gran apertura de una nueva adición en el albergue. La fiesta fue como revivir tiempos pasados, pero mejores, con bastantes discursos, risas, lágrimas y abrazos, y una gran abundancia de alimentos para todos. Milagros se sintió feliz de haber podido llevar una buena cantidad de ensalada de pollo para compartir. Había habido bastantes comidas anteriormente a las cuales ella no había podido contribuir en lo absoluto. Durante la fiesta todos comentaban lo feliz que se veían los niños de Milagros y cuánto habían crecido. Desde entonces ella ha regresado cuatro veces al albergue como voluntaria. Una fiesta pudiera definirse como una reunión de mucha gente que comparte comidas y recuerdos para celebrar algún acontecimiento o una visión significativa. Las fiestas tienen un poder asombroso para sanar y nutrir nuestro espíritu, para unirnos en el amor y motivarnos a preocuparnos los unos por los otros. Las fiestas que nos relatan las Escrituras de hoy ilustran la alimentación milagrosa, tanto física como espiritual, que tiene lugar cuando nos reunimos para celebrar la Eucaristía, la memoria y la promesa "del amor de Dios manifestado en Cristo Jesús, Señor nuestro" (Romanos 8:39).
