A Word from Fr. Ray

United Blood Services would like to express their gratitude to the 17 donations of life giving blood from our parishioners at CTK for the September 2015 blood drive. The donations have already been tested and processed and is being used by hospitals.

OUR ANNUAL PUMPKIN PATCH IS NEXT WEEK SATURDAY OCTOBER 17

Please be sure to stop by the Pumpkin Patch table after the Masses and sign up to help as volunteers. We especially need people to help set up the stand all day Friday before the event and break down on Saturday after the event. Contact Beth Thompson at the parish office.

Many thanks again to our parishioners that have been consistently donating to the debt reduction fund. I will be giving a full report of our finances and state of the parish towards the end of October. Your continued support of our debt reduction collection remains still an awesome contribution.

We say farewell and congratulations to Jason Ealy as he journeys into a new career at St. Jude Ranch. Thank you Jason for your ministry over the years here at CTK.

With much love and gratitude, Fr. Ray

Una Palabra de P. Ray

Los Servicios Unidos de Sangre desean expresar su gratitud a las 17 donaciones de vida que da la sangre de nuestros feligreses a CTK para la donación de sangre el pasado Septiembre del 2015. Las donaciones ya han sido aprobadas y procesadas y están siendo utilizadas por los hospitales.

NUESTRA ANUAL FIESTA DE LAS CALABAZAS ES LA PRÓXIMA SEMANA SABADO 17 de Octubre

Por favor, asegúrese de pasar por la mesa de la Fiesta de las Calabazas después de las Misas y regístrate para ayudar como voluntarios. Especialmente necesitamos gente para ayudar a establecer los puestos todo el día viernes antes del evento y luego para bajarlos el Sábado después del evento. Póngase en contacto con a Beth Thompson en la oficina parroquial.

Muchas gracias de nuevo a nuestros feligreses que han donando constantemente al fondo de reducción de la deuda. Voy a dar un informe completo de nuestras finanzas y el estado de la parroquia hacia finales de Octubre. Su apoyo continuo de nuestra colección de reducción de la deuda sigue siendo todavía una contribución impresionante.

Decimos adiós y en hora buena a Jason Ealy en su viaje hacia una nueva carrera en St. Jude Ranch. Gracias a Jason por su ministerio durante los años aquí en CTK.

Con mucho amor y gratitud, P. Ray

Hours: Monday to Thursday 10:00 am until noon
Located in the Parish Office

Mark your Calendars for our next Family Promise Visit on November 8-15

Our families experiencing homelessness move on to their next congregation today after spending a week here at our parish home. We appreciate all the efforts on the part of our volunteers and those who support this program with funding in the Poor Box. We will be serving a different group of families on the week of November 8th through 15th. If you are interested in doing this work, call Jane in the Parish Office.

NEXT BLOOD DRIVE November 8th from 8:00 am until 1:00 pm

Our next blood drive will be on Sunday, Nov. 8th, in the Community Center here at Christ the King.

Call Jane at (702)871-1904 or email: janef@ctkccnv.org if you are interesting in donating blood.

In today's gospel Jesus challenges us to live as God calls us to, not the world. Have you allowed the world's way to detract from your marriage? The next Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekend is on November 6-8th in the Las Vegas area. Early registration is highly recommended. For more information, call Steve and Terri Sharp at (702) 589-0068 or go to www.lvloveyourspouse.org. For information on Spanish-language weekends, call Javier and Maria Lopez at (702) 243-5934 or (702) 206-4270.

Important
Pumpkin Patch Volunteer Meeting
Thursday, October 15th 6:30 pm
in the Community Center

Treasures from our Tradition

How did the church deal with “daily sins” in the first five centuries? As devout and observant as they were, our early fathers and mothers in faith could not have been all that different from us. Maybe they looked the other way when the grocer threw an extra fig in the shopping basket, or had a wandering eye for the widow next door, or had a taste for too much ale, or didn't let the truth get in the way of a good story. First of all, there was the Eucharist. The words are familiar: “This is the cup of my blood, poured out for the forgiveness of sin.” Especially by participating in Communion from the cup, forgiveness was achieved. Eucharist was, and remains, the sacrament of reconciliation par excellence, the sign and source of unity with Christ.

There were other helps along the way: “fraternal” correction, or the course corrections we offer one another in love, prayer, fasting, works of mercy. St. Augustine listed endurance of suffering, forgiveness of insults, and added the praying of the Lord's Prayer in the liturgy. He felt that the public praying of the Our Father on Sunday and its daily use in private prayer was an essential remedy and the reason why everyone was not a candidate for canonical penance. Inherited from Augustine's practice, the Lord's Prayer in our Communion Rite still has the same purpose, preparing us for receiving and becoming the Body of Christ.—Rev. James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

God's Word Today

Of all the events and circumstances that draw people together, it would seem that marriage is the most universal and obvious manifestation of that longing to be one. Though some may sacrifice marriage for what they deem to be a greater good or need, and others may never find their heart's way to that dream, all of us long to be touched by the magic of committed love. There is something woven into the warp and woof of our lives that passionately searches for it. More than anything, it is the ideal of marital love that reveals what we are meant to be—all of life and love so united to one another that there is nothing to divide, since there is no longer anything but pure oneness. Then we are no longer two simply because we are one, one flesh.

That is what makes divorce such a sadness, such a personal and even communal tragedy—that it shatters the vision of what we are meant to be. That is also why it causes such pain, such a wrenching; for if marriage fails, might not then also God's dream of who we shall be? That seems to be too unbearable even to dare consider.

Into such fragile human becoming, then, comes the Lord Jesus, among the married and the divorced, among the sad and the joyful, among the lost and the hopeful, into what we are no matter what we are. He is the most profound and transforming revelation of that unity to which we are called simply because he unites and embodies both the human and the divine in such a way that it can never again be alienated.—Rev. Joseph J. Juknialis

Tradiciones de Nuestra Fe

La mayoría de las personas que viven en Estados Unidos han emigrado para mejorar su situación económica. Muchísimos lo han logrado mediante mucho trabajo, un buen salario y comprándose una buena casa en un vecindario tranquilo. En pocas palabras, se han hecho ricos. No obstante, éste mismo sueño se ha convertido en una pesadilla, pues todos sueñan con ser famosos, ganar mucho dinero, tener el carro más lujoso y vivir en un condominio muy exclusivo. El chiste es hacerse ricos a toda costa. Muchas veces sin importar los medios.

En la Palestina del tiempo de Jesús todo mundo soñaba con hacerse rico. Las riquezas eran consideradas bendición de Dios, por eso los discípulos se asombraron cuando Jesús declara: “Es más fácil que un camello pase por el ojo de la aguja, que un rico entre en el Reino de Dios” (Marcos 10:25). El ojo de la aguja era una puerta baja y estrecha por la cual pasaba la gente común a Jerusalén. Jesús no está negando la entrada al cielo a los ricos, basta que hagan lo que hace el camello para pasar: despojarse de su carga.—Fray Gilberto Cavazos-Giz, OFM, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

La Palabra De Dios

De entre todos los acontecimientos y todas las circunstancias que unen a las personas, el matrimonio parece ser la manifestación más universal y obvia de ese anhelo de ser uno con otra persona. Aunque algunos sacrifican el matrimonio por lo que ellos estiman ser un bien o una necesidad mayor, y otros puede que nunca encuentren ese sueño de su corazón, todos anhelamos la magia de un amor comprometido. Hay algo en lo más recóndito de lo que compone la latitud y longitud de nuestro ser que busca ese amor apasionadamente. La idea del amor marital es lo que revela más que ninguna otra cosa aquello para lo cual hemos sido creados: toda la vida y todo el amor tan unidos en los unos por los otros, que no hay nada que dividir, pues ya no existe otra cosa que una sola unidad. Entonces ya no somos dos debido sencillamente a que somos uno, una sola carne.

Eso es lo que hace que el divorcio sea tan triste, una tragedia personal y comunitaria que destroza la visión de aquello para lo cual hemos sido creados. Es por eso también que causa tanto dolor, tanto traumatismo, pues si el matrimonio falla, ¿no tendrá la misma suerte el sueño de Dios sobre lo que debemos ser? Eso parece ser demasiado inaguantable ni aun para atrevernos a considerarlo.

A tal fragilidad humana viene el Señor Jesús, a vivir entre los casados y divorciados, entre los tristes y los alegres, entre los perdidos y los esperanzados, viene a entrar en lo que somos, sin importar lo que somos. Él es la revelación más profunda y transformadora de esa unidad a la que estamos llamados sencillamente porque él une y encarna lo humano y lo divino de tal manera que nunca más pueden distanciarse.—Padre Joseph J. Juknialis

Readers Wanted

We are in need of new Readers at our liturgies, especially for Saturdays at 4pm and Sundays at 7:30 am. Sun. masses. If you are interested in being trained as a Reader in this life-giving ministry, please call Mike Dunegan, our Reader Coordinator at:
(702) 362-8490.

Our reflections on the Sunday scripture continue...

October 10/11 (28th Sunday Ordinary Time)

To keep the commandments is NOT enough. To come to mass is NOT enough. To have possessions and to be "possessed" by them is not the way we are called to live. We must actively go beyond the "letter of the law" and live by the "spirit". We must give up all and in doing so, will receive eternal life. What have you done lately that shows you go beyond the "letter of the law" and live by the "spirit" of God?

Guardar los mandamientos NO es suficiente. Venir a Misa NO es suficiente. Tener posesiones y ser "poseído" por ellas no es el camino que estamos llamados a vivir. Debemos ir más allá de la "Letra de la ley" activamente y vivir por el "espíritu". Debemos dar todo y al hacerlo, recibiremos la vida eterna.

¿Qué hemos hecho últimamente que muestre que vamos más allá de la "letra de la ley" y vivimos por el "espíritu" de Dios?

October 17/18 (29th Sunday Ordinary Time)

When we truly follow Christ, we should do so in service to one another. There is no seeking of glory and recognition – no sitting at the right hand or left hand of God. We do not look to be served by others, but rather to humbly serve as we are able. What motivates your service to others? Do you serve with a generous and willing heart, with no "strings" attached?

Cuando verdaderamente seguimos a Cristo, debemos hacerlo en el servicio de unos a otros. No buscando la gloria y reconocimiento – sin querer estar a la derecha o a la izquierda de Dios. No esperamos ser servido por otros, sino que debemos servir humildemente en la medida en que podamos.

¿Qué motiva tu servicio a los demás? ¿Sirves con un corazón dispuesto y generoso, sin "condiciones"?

Musical Concert Series at CTK

Join Pope Francis' Invitation to Family Prayer

October begins the first month of Family Prayer. Because the Lord is the God of our ancestors, our theme will deal strengthening the relationships between our family's generations. Take this month to celebrate your family history and learn more about it, while thanking God.

Discussion Questions (after prayer):

1. Who is one person in my family whose faith shaped my own faith?
2. What are some ways our family tries to live out belief in God and his Church?
3. Which virtue seems to be particularly strong in our family-- faith, hope, or charity?
4. Why is memory important to the future?
5. What strengths do the children in our family have?

Flag Retirement

Don't trash it ... Let your Knights properly retire your unusable Flag!

The Knights of Columbus--CTK Council 14144 will be collecting worn, tattered, faded, and unusable flags during the month of October and the first two weeks of November. We suggest that you inspect your flag and consider if it has served your family well. If that is the case, now is the time to respectfully retire it. Bring flags to be retired into the gathering area of the church and place them in the container provided. We will have a burning ceremony at the fire pit in the courtyard after Veteran's Day, Wednesday, November 11th. (Details will be announced at that time.)

Dear Students and Parents,

Jason Ealy, Our Youth Minister, has quit his position at Christ the King to take a position in the corporate world. We wish him well as his journey takes on new challenges and opens new possibilities.

We look forward to working together with you this coming year to deepen our faith as our students prepare to celebrate the sacrament of Confirmation. Please know that we are open to your needs and concerns and we may be contacted at the phone number or email above.

Blessings, Beth Thompson and the Confirmation Team

Explore Calendar

All classes are on Tuesday nights 6:00 pm to 7:30 pm

10/20- Regular Classes

10/27 - Regular Classes

Dear Explore Family,

Each week at mass we respond to the first reading in song with a psalm. These psalms speak to the liturgical season and the readings we hear.

Today in class, we prayed using the psalms. These ancient prayers to God from the Old Testament or Hebrew Scriptures are still relevant to us today.

They speak to us about what is happening in our lives and open a path to God as we reach out to express to him what is going on in our day.

Listen to the words of the psalm response this week in mass. On the way home, talk together as a family about what we were saying to God and how it related to today's readings.

Blessings,
Beth and the Explore Team

Small Church Communities; a way of being Church

"Where ordinary people connect life and faith on a regular basis."

Small Church Communities are groups of 6 to 8 people who gather in homes to reflect on the scriptures of the upcoming Sunday and their significance in their lives. All ministries and organizations connected to Christ the King are asked to use a simple formula for prayer as they gather: Read one of the scriptures for the upcoming Sunday. Take a few moments to reflect on one of the questions related to the scripture (in Fr. Ray's column). Invite individuals to share their response with the person next to them; encourage people to share with someone they do not know well. Before we know it we have grown closer as a community!
