November 8, 2015 ~ Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's Readings

First Reading —
The widow of Zarephath had only a handful of flour and a little oil, but made a little cake for Elijah (1 Kings 17:10-16).

Psalm — Praise the Lord, my soul! (Psalm 146).

Second Reading — Christ will appear a second time to bring salvation to those who eagerly await him (Hebrews 9:24-28).

Gospel — Beware of those who like to go around in long robes and accept greetings in the marketplaces and places of honor at banquets (Mark 12:38-44 [41-44]).

WE NEED YOUR HELP!

It's that time of the year again that we are collecting items for our Silent Auction baskets and for our Live Auction!

Please save or bring us the following items:
Cars, liquor, jewelry, spa items, ornaments, Christmas trees, decors, household items, hotel gift certificates, hotel gift certificates, gift certificate for services (i.e., hairdresser, manicurist, estheticians) movie tickets, restaurant gift certificates, weekend get-away or any other item(s) suitable for our gift baskets or that could be auctioned off individually.

Cashiers, Monitors, Basket Makers, Security

We need your help in assembling the baskets, working at the auction as a table monitor, cashier or security. There are a lot of jobs and we can find one for you. Whether you have worked on the auction in the past years or have never been involved, please step up and be part of this fabulous event this year.

You can pick up your auction raffle tickets and entrance tickets after Mass at the table in the Gathering Space or stop by the office during the week.

For more information, please call:

A Word from Fr. Ray

It isn't too late to make a pledge for our annual CSA. If you haven't already made a pledge it is never too late to sign up before December 31st. Any amount would benefit our campaign and residuals come back to the parish. So stop by the information desk and pick up an envelope or anytime during business hours at the parish office. Many of the pledges are still outstanding by about $9,000.00. Please be sure to have your pledges in before December 31st 2015. All pledges received after December 31st will automatically be applied to CSA 2016.

We are still a little slow on purchases for annual "Auction" entry and raffle tickets. Be sure to stop by after the Masses on Sunday, or anytime at the church office to purchase your entry and raffle tickets. This is a one of our largest fundraisers of the year which benefits our general fund. Many thanks go out to all that have participated so far. See you at the auction.

Be sure to sign up for the classes that will be offered on the "Prophets." This will be a survey on the Prophets from the Old Testament. Classes will begin on Wednesday, December 2nd, and will be given for two successive Wednesdays, December 9th and the 16th at 6:30 PM. More details to come in future announcement. Please contact Beth Thompson at the administrative office to sign up. These classes will also offer credits to those that are enrolled in the "Master Catechist Program" offered by the Diocese of Las Vegas.

With much love and gratitude, Fr. Ray

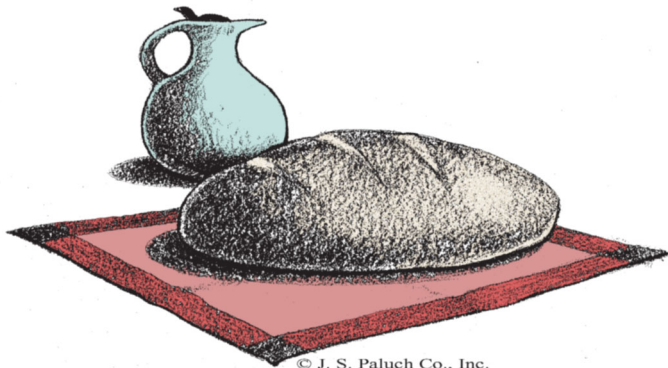

Una Palabra de P. Ray

No es demasiado tarde para hacer una promesa para nuestro CSA anual. Si aún no han hecho una promesa nunca es demasiado tarde para inscribirse antes del 31 de Diciembre. Cualquier cantidad beneficiaría a nuestra campaña y los residuos se devuelven a la parroquia. Así que por favor pasen al mostrador de información y recojan un sobre o en cualquier momento durante el horario laboral en la oficina parroquial. Muchas de las promesas aún están pendientes por alrededor de $ 9,000.00. Por favor, asegúrese de que sus promesas de antes del 31 de diciembre de 2015. Todas las promesas recibidas después del 31 de diciembre se aplicará automáticamente a la CSA 2016.

Todavía estamos un poco lentos en las compras para el ingreso anual de "Subasta" y boletos de la rifa. Asegúrese de pasar después de las Misas del domingo, o en cualquier momento en el negocio de comprar su entrada y los boletos de la rifa. Esta es una de nuestras más grandes se recaudadores de fondos del año que beneficia a nuestro fondo general. Muchas gracias a todos los que han participado hasta ahora. Nos vemos en la subasta.

Asegúrese de inscribirse para las clases que se ofrecen en los "Profetas." Esta será una encuesta sobre los profetas del Antiguo Testamento. Las clases se inician el miércoles 2, diciembre, y se darán durante dos miércoles sucesivos, 09 de diciembre y el día 16 a las 6:30 PM. Más detalles por venir en el anuncio futuro. Por favor, póngase en contacto con a Beth Thompson en la oficina administrativa para inscribirse. Estas clases también ofrecen créditos a los que están inscritos en el "Programa Maestro Catequista" ofrecido por la Diócesis de Las Vegas.

Con mucho amor y gratitud, Padre Ray

from 8:00 am
until 1:00 pm

Our blood drive is today in the Community Center. Please stop by if your are eligible to donate blood!

Mark your Calendars for our next Family Promise
Visit on November 8-15

Our families experiencing homelessness move on to their next congregation today after spending a week here at our parish home. We appreciate all the efforts on the part of our volunteers and those who support this program with funding in the Poor Box. We will be serving a different group of families on the week of November 8th through 15th. If you are interested in doing this work, call Jane in the Parish Office.

Please bring brown bag lunch supplies for our families who will be staying with us from November 8 through the 15th along with your usual Manna Cupboard food donations.

We need:

Cookies
Chips in small bags
Capri Sun juices
Snack Pack Pudding Cups
Gatorade in bottles
Del Monte Fruit Cups
Granola Bars

FRESH AND EASY OUT OF BUSINESS

We would like to publicly thank Fresh and Easy Grocery Stores for the donations of food we have received from them for the last seven years. They have made the difference in our food pantry, Manna Cupboard, being able to offer fresh meat, produce and dairy products to our clients. We are currently looking for other grocery stores who might be able to fill this void created by the closure of Fresh and Easy. We are looking for stores reasonably close to the church, in order to make pick-up and delivery as easy as possible for our volunteers. If anyone has any connections with stores close by, please give Jane a call at (702) 871-1904.

HOLIDAY DINNER VOUCHERS

We are outside today and next weekend to collect $10.00 donations for our dinner baskets for the needy during the upcoming holidays. Any amount of donation is welcome.

Treasures from our Tradition

In 1974, a revised ritual of penance was given to the Church, and at forty years distance, we still are discovering its treasures and tentative about some of its provisions. The rite reaches deep into our tradition for an early insight: when we turn to God, we are restored to life in the Church.

There are three different forms of penance. The familiar individual confession is preserved, but with tremendous enrichment. It is less rushed, anchored by a reading from scripture, and the confession of sins is seen as an opportunity to proclaim faith in God's power to save. In a sense, what is "confessed" is the penitent's faith in God's gift of forgiveness. The priest suggests a penance that may be directly connected to the virtue that the person seeks as a means of overcoming the fault. There are formulas for contrition suggested, but the penitent might even express sorrow for sin and desire for mercy in his or her own words. The prayer of absolution grounds the event in the life and ministry of the Church. Harking back to the joyful dance of bishops leading penitents into the church, the rite now ends with a prayer of thanksgiving for God's mercy, and may include the gesture of laying on of hands. After forty years, we struggle to claim this rite forged of memory, tradition, and grace. History tells us to be patient; we do not always recognize a treasure at first. —Rev. James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

God's Word Today

My earliest memory of a widow was Aunt Lizzie: white-haired, seemingly very old, but kindly. (I was four, so she was probably in her sixties then—how one's perspective on age changes with time!) She lived with my godmother and uncle, having contributed some of her savings to help them buy a house. My second memory was of Lana Turner playing The Merry Widow in the 1952 movie of the same name. Both were light years away, historically and culturally, from the widows in today's readings.

The widows in biblical times were imperiled. If they did not have sons who would care for them, their very lives could be endangered. The widow in the first reading has a young son; she is collecting sticks to build a fire to prepare the last of her flour so they can eat and die. When Elijah asks her to prepare a cake for him, she generously does so—which proves to be her salvation. Later he even restores her son to life.

Jesus watches a widow put in her last—literally—two cents in the temple's coffers. He has previously warned about the scribes who "devour the houses of widows" while reciting lengthy prayers (Mark 12:40). Some say Jesus is lamenting the foolishness of this widow, like the prophets of the past who railed against the neglect of widows and orphans. But most think he is praising her generosity in giving "all she had, her whole livelihood" (12:44). Like her, Jesus will soon put all his trust in the Father. —James A. Wallace, C.Ss.R. Tradiciones de Nuestra Fe

Entre las comunidades hispanas aún existe el concepto de que a la Iglesia se le da limosna. Esta es una horrible costumbre, puesto que ni a Dios ni a la Iglesia se le debe la limosna, sino el diezmo y no necesariamente económico, esto es, también debemos considerar tiempo y talento. Este diezmo se le da a Dios por medio del mantenimiento de la Iglesia, la ayuda directa a los necesitados, la generosidad con agencias de caridad, etcétera. No importa a quién o cómo damos el diezmo que debemos a Dios, lo que importa es reconocer que no es limosna, es decir, dar de lo que nos sobra. Es dar desde el corazón, compartir, como la viuda del Evangelio, lo que tenemos para vivir.

No obstante, muchos somos tacaños con el Señor. En lugar de dar con generosidad, damos poco o damos para hacernos notar. Damos de lo que nos sobra, si acaso damos. Tenemos mucho que aprender de la viuda que se nos presenta en Marcos 12:41-44. Ella, siendo pobre y necesitada, aún así quiso compartir con Dios de lo que tenía para vivir. Casi siempre los pobres son más generosos que los ricos o la clase media. Son ellos quienes nos muestran la generosidad de Dios y nos desafían a hacer lo mismo, a fin de erradicar la pobreza. —Fray Gilberto Cavazos-Glz, OFM, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

La Palabra De Dios

La primera vez que conocí a una viuda fue a mi tía Lizzie: pelo blanco, aparentemente muy anciana, pero muy bondadosa. (Yo tenía cuatro años y ella probablemente estaba en sus sesentas. ¡Cómo cambia nuestra perspectiva en cuanto a la edad con el tiempo!) Ella vivía con mi madrina y mi tío, ya que había ayudado con sus ahorros a comprarles una casa. La segunda viuda que recuerdo es Lana Turner en su papel de La viuda alegre (título original: The Merry Widow) en la película del año 1952, que llevaba el mismo nombre. Ambas estaban a años luz, tanto histórica como culturalmente, de las viudas en las lecturas de hoy.

Las viudas de los tiempos bíblicos corrían riesgos. Si no tenían hijos que se ocuparan de ellas su vida corría peligro. Los profetas del pasado denunciaban el descuido a las viudas y huérfanos. La viuda de la primera lectura tiene un hijo joven; ella recoge leña para hacer fuego y preparar algo de comer para ambos con lo último que le queda de harina y después morir los dos. Cuando Elías le pide que le prepare un pan ella generosamente lo hace, lo cual será su salvación. Más tarde Elías hasta le devuelve la vida al hijo de ella.

Jesús ve como una viuda pone sus últimos (textualmente) centavos en las arcas del templo. Ya él anteriormente había advertido acerca de los escribas que "devoran los bienes de las viudas" mientras recitan largas oraciones (Marcos 12:40). Algunos dicen que Jesús lamenta la insensatez, pero la mayoría piensa que él elogia la generosidad de ella por dar "desde su pobreza todo lo que tenía para vivir" (12:44). Como ella, Jesús pronto pondrá toda su confianza en el Padre. —James A. Wallace, C.Ss.R. Derechos de autor © 2014, World Library Publications. Todos los derechos reservados.

Jesus tells us of the widow who gave to God from her livelihood. Do we put our trust in God and allow him to be Lord in every area of our life like the widow did? Allow God to transform your marriage relationship. Strengthen, renew, and rekindle your marriage sacrament by attending a Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekends on February 19-21st, May 20-22nd and August 12-14th. Early registration is highly recommended. For more information, call Steve and Terri Sharp at (702) 589-0068 or go to www.lvloveyourspouse.org. For information on Spanish-language weekends, call Javier and Maria Lopez at (702) 243-5934 or (702) 206-4270.

Our reflections on the Sunday scripture continue...Nuestras reflexiones del las Escrituras del Domingo continua...

November 7/8 (31st Sunday Ordinary Time)

God's providence and protection are always with us. The story of the widow in today's Gospel who gives all she has is in sharp contrast to the scribes who go about seeking honor and give with stingy hearts. The widow is a model of total self-giving. She is a true disciple. Do you ever act like the scribes? Are you at times like the widow? Do you help others not just with money but by giving your time, talents, lending an ear to listen to another in need? Even "something" can be your "all."

Noviembre 7/8 (31^o Domingo del tiempo ordinario)

La protección y la providencia de Dios están siempre con nosotros. La historia de la viuda del Evangelio de hoy que da todo lo que tiene, es un agudo contraste con los escribas que buscan honor y dan con corazones mezquinos. La viuda es un modelo de total entrega. Ella es un verdadero discípulo. ¿A veces actúas como los escribas? ¿A veces eres como la viuda? ¿Ayudas a otros no sólo con dinero sino dando tu tiempo, talentos, o prestando oídos para escuchar a otros en necesidad? Incluso "poco" puede ser tu "todo"

November 14/15 (32nd Sunday Ordinary Time)

The "end times", the apocalypse, the falling of stars from the sky – all these images frighten. However, the believer, the disciple of Christ knows there is nothing to fear. Like the fig tree that becomes green and sprouts its leaves, we hear God's word and by the way we choose to live, we bear fruit that lasts into eternity. We need not fear the end of this earthly life. What stage of life are you in? Are you bearing fruit or are your leaves of faith and service withered and faded? There is still time!

Noviembre 14/15 (32^o Domingo del tiempo ordinario)

El "fin de los tiempos", el Apocalipsis, la caída de las estrellas del cielo – todas estas imágenes asustan. Sin embargo, el creyente, el discípulo de Cristo sabe no hay nada que temer. Como la higuera que llega a ser verde y hace brotar sus hojas, escuchamos la palabra de Dios y por el camino que elegimos vivir, llevamos fruto que perdura en la eternidad. No necesitamos temer el final de esta vida terrena. ¿En qué etapa de la vida estás? ¿Llevas frutos o tus hojas de fe y servicio marchitaron y desaparecieron? Todavía hay tiempo!

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

IN SERVICE TO ONE. IN SERVICE TO ALL.

Flag Burning Ceremony

The Knights of Columbus sponsored Flag Retirement Ceremony will take place NEXT SUNDAY, November 15 at the Fire Pit in our courtyard after the 9:30 mass and before the 11:30 mass. All are invited to attend this event to respectfully pay tribute to our worn, torn, faded or badly soiled United States flags -- "Old Glory". As members of the Knights of Columbus Color Corps retires your flag in the traditional method with all the dignity and respect befitting our nation's flag, you will be afforded the opportunity to witness this event personally.

Flags will continue to be accepted in the gathering space until the beginning of our 9:30 mass on November 15th. Sir Knight Vincent Gorski, Grand Knight - CTK Council 14144

Family Weekly Prayer

The Knights hope that last month in your weekly family discussions, you learned something new about your family's ancestry and how it has shaped you to live a life believing in God and His Church. During November, our focus remains strong with our family ties and how we live our lives as Christians. The theme for November deals with celebration.

"Because God rested on the seventh day, we want to celebrate Sunday as a family."

Discussion Questions (after praying together):

1. What does it mean to me to see the rest of the family pray or attend Mass with me?
2. Why might God want me to be a part of this particular family, giving me these people to love and care for?"
3. What is one thing about Mary or Joseph that I admire?
4. How can I allow others to help me discover God's plan for me? How can I encourage others to be open to God's plan for them?

11/3 – No Classes

Dear Explore Family,

Take time as a family this week to read
next Sunday's Gospel, Mark 13: 24-32.

This can be found on page 91 in your student's Bible. The images of the end Times in this reading are scary. We know we do not have to fear because we believe In Jesus, our savior. We are like the fig tree, we listen to the Word of God and choose To live a life that reflects our belief as we follow in the footsteps of Jesus. Ask yourself,
What have I done this week that brings the love of Jesus to the world around me? What can we do together this week as a family to reflect the love of God to the world?

Blessings,
Beth and the Explore Team

Small Church Communities; a way of being Church

"Where ordinary people connect life and faith on a regular basis."

Small Church Communities are groups of 6 to 8 people who gather in homes to reflect on the scriptures of the upcoming Sunday and their significance in their lives. All ministries and organizations connected to Christ the King are asked to use a simple formula for prayer as they gather: Read one of the scriptures for the upcoming Sunday. Take a few moments to reflect on one of the questions related to the scripture (in Fr. Ray's column). Invite individuals to share their response with the person next to them; encourage people to share with someone they do not know well. Before we know it we have grown closer as a community!
